

Year 5 WWII

On Wednesday 21st February, Year 5 were visited by staff of the Museum of London Docklands for a workshop on The Blitz as part of their WWII topic.

The children were tasked with investigating the life and experiences of Connie Hoe, who lived in Limehouse and witnessed the bombing of London first hand.

World Book Day Eggstravaganza!

Competition 1: Class entry

Each class will put together a book scene using hard boiled eggs. The Arts team will decide on the winning class.

Competition 2: Home entry

For those of you who would like to give it a go at home - again, choose a book and put together a scene using boiled eggs. Home entries will then be judged separately to the class entries.

Rules -

All entries to be labelled with the title and author of the book it shows a scene from Home entries must be different from the chosen class entry Entries will be judged for effort, creativity and originality. Entries to be given to Mrs Treleven before 3pm on Friday 8th March 2024.

So all you need to do now is hatch a plan! We are so egg-cited to see what you come up with......

Curriculum focus - Music

Music at James Dixon is a time to enjoy the rhythm and show your love for the beat! Children learn a range of instruments and get to exercise their singing voices every Tuesday in assembly.

Two weeks ago, Year 2 learnt a new song about Florence Nightingale with Mrs Rabin.

Year 4 have been enjoying learning to play the Djembe drums every Wednesday.

Glockenspiels were the instrument of choice this week in Year 6.

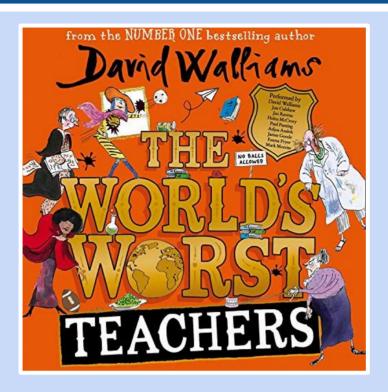

In Year 5, we've been getting to grips with the Steel Pans!

Miss Huxley

I absolutely loved sharing these stories with each class I have taught. These ten tales of the world's most splendidly sinister teachers will have you terrified and feeling grateful for your wonderful JD teachers!

Dr Dread teaches Science and is half man, half monster nothing like our wonderful Test Treleven. Watch out for the ghastly Miss Seethe. She is ALWAYS furious – and she's on a detention rampage. And as for Mr BULK, the sports teacher, an enormous oaf of a teacher who the kids call 'The Incredible Bulk'.

This book is filled with beautiful illustrations on almost every page, all worked into the story in a comic book feel that brings the storytelling vividly to life.

JD PTA Quiz

On Friday 9th February, over one hundred of the JD community gathered in Crystal Palace for the inaugural James Dixon PTA Quiz Night. Seventeen teams battled it out to be the winners as they answered eight rounds of questions from music to general knowledge to the inside of chocolate bars. The winning team were JD's very own "Loaded Fries" with a very respectable 88.5 points. Huge thanks must go to the PTA team for organising such an enjoyable evening.
